

True Parenting Seminar & Workshop

This hands-on, interactive workshop will provide practical and useful activities that apply True Colors concepts to the difficult job of parenting.

Participants of this program:

- ✓ will learn the “true colors” of each member of your family, especially the children,
- ✓ will discover insights into how each family member influences the behaviors of your children,
- ✓ will identify how to parent each child in ways they will naturally respond to and accept according to their True Colors.

Key Benefits Include

- Learn about True Colors, an easy and highly effective communications tool for all ages
- Understand and appreciate how personality differences lead to various behaviors of children
- Recognize the values, joys, strengths, stressors and frustrations of each of your child’s personality type
- Learn new methods to build and promote respect and self-confidence in your children
- Deepen family relationships and create a more harmonious home environment
- Enhance parenting skills in communication, motivation, discipline and building self-esteem
- Deepen the parenting relationship that you share with your “other half”
